2012 Champion Junior Category - Central Division

Trent Jardine Oil City Ontario born September 22, 1999

This year my summer job was getting two colts ready for the 2012 show season. The one stud colt being mine “HD”, the other one “Hook”. Throughout the summer, there was lots of raring and jumping as the two studs colts had to learn the “system”. I had to teach the colts how to lead, how to lunge, and how to set up, the hardest was to get them to stand still for a lengthy amount of time. I liked both colts, but I had this thing for HD. He is so quiet and gentle for a stud. Some of my greatest achievements happened this year like winning the Indiana State Fair and the CNE. I was once again whip man for my dad in the United States of America. We, unfortunately, did not have any older horses in the show string to hitch this year, this meaning I would have to leave my driving experience in the fields. Now fall is here, colts will be here before you know it and looking forward to another year 2013.. Trent Jardine
